THE PAYMENT OF CLAIMS BY THE TRAVEL THE PAYMENT OF CLAIMS BY THE TRAVELers Insurance Company is a matter of almost daily occurrence, the latest one paid in Washington being to Charles W. Little of the P. O.
Dept. who was persuaded to take an annual policy last summer instead of a 30-day ticket.
He now appreciates the force of our argument that the only safe plan is to insure all the time against ALL KINDS of accidents. The Travelers' writes such a contract. It will be a pleasure to tell YOU about it. Drop me a card today. FRANK H. THOMAS, Agent, L. & T. bldg.

Cullom Urged for the Cabinet. At a meeting of the S. M. Cullom National Republican Association held last night a committee consisting of Thomas L. Jones, John M. Largston, George C. L. Jones, John M. Largston, George C. Mason, Thomas J. Clayton, A. J. Leonard, James Potts, W. A. Perry was appointed to go to Canton and urge upon Maj. Mc-Kinley the selection of Senator Cullom of Illinois as a member of his cabinet. The cub also discussed its arrangements for participation in the inaugural parade.

THE OFFICYAL WEATHER MAP.

EXPLANATORY NOTE: Observations taken at 8 a.m., 75th meridian time. Solid lines are isobars, or lines of equal air pressure, drawn for each tenth of an inch. Dotted lines are isotherms, or lines of equal temperature, drawn for each ten degrees. Shaded areas are regions where rain or snow has fallen during preceding twelve hours. The words "High" and "Low" show location of areas of high and low barometer. Small arrows fly with the wind.

SUNDAY WEATHER DOUBTFUL.

Colder Tonight and a Threat of Snow Tomorrow.

Forecast till 8p.m. Sunday-For the District of Columbia and Maryland, fair and colder tonight; Sunday fair, probably followed by threatening weather and snow Sunday evening or night; northerly winds, shifting to easterly.

For Virginia, fair and colder tonight; fair, but with increasing cloudiness, Sunday; northerly winds, becoming variable.

Weather conditions and general forecast -The barometer has fallen in New England and over Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado and west of the Rocky mountains; it has risen rapidly in the central valleys and from Lake Huron westward to Montana. It is decidedly colder in the Ohio valley, the lake regions and the northwest, and it is warmer along the gulf and south Atlantic coasts.
Cloudy weather and light snows are reported from New England westward to the Rocky mountains, and fair weather pre-vails from the middle and south Atlantic coast westward to New Mexico and Colorado.

The indications are that colder, fair weather will prevail along the Atlantic coast and the cloudiness will increase in the Ohio and lower Mississippi valleys, the general assembly and their guests were seated at the banquet tables. The tables were arranged in the form of the figures "72," and contained covers for 200, about half of whom were state officials and guests of the members. Mr. Hanna was among the first to enter the room. His entrance was unheralded, and it was a moment before the crowd caught on and started to applaud. A few moments later Governor Bushnell entered. the evening, was seated in the center of the west table. At his right was Lleutenant Governor A. W. Jones, and at his left Adjutant General Axline. Mr. Hanna sat Adjutant General Axline. Mr. Hanna sat next to Mr. Jones, with Levi C. Goodale at his right. Speaker D. L. Sleeper came next, followed by Speaker Pro Tem. C. H. Bosler, Mr. Blackburn and Senators Harbaugh, Sullivan and Shriock. At the left of General Axline were Judge John A. Shauck, Clerk Caine and other state officers.

After all the guests had been seated, they were greatly pleased at the electric display which followed. The room was darkened, and then "Welcome 72d" shone forth from the ceiling. Then a beautiful American flag in the red, white and blue came out of the darkness, eliciting a round of applause It was just midnight when Speaker Sleep-er introduced Governor Bushnell. A burst of applause followed, lasting several minutes. The governor then congratulated those present upon the fact that there were so many members of the legislature present, and that no deaths had occurred since the body was elected. The governor told several good stories apropos to the occasion, and called out a nearty laugh by have a legislature on his hands.

Lieut, Governor A. W. Jones responded to the toast "The 72d General Assembly," the sentiment being "The evil that men do lives after them."

Adjutant General Axline responded to the toast, "The Ohio Soldiery Couragious in War, Law-abiding in Peace, Ever

The toast "Nineteenth century politics" was to be responded to by Mr. C. L. Kurtz, who was not present, and Levi C. Goodale of Cincinnati was called out to respond to "Certainties of life—death and taxes."

It was a late hour when the banquet closed.

TOPEKA, Kan., January 22, Republican TOPEKA, Kan., January 22.—Republican members of the state legislature met in caucus tonight and gave the commitmentary nomination for United States senator to J. R. Burton of Abilene. Mr. Burton was selected on the second ballot, receiving forty of the forty-nine votes cast, ex-Senator J. J. Ingalls securing three and Gen. J. C. Caldwell six.

The caucus was organized by the Burton faction, and as his nomination was certain, several of the Ingalls men refused to attend. The caucus also indorsed Henry C. Payne of Milwaukee, Wis., for a cabinet position in the incoming administration.

the afternoon, accompanied by Major Dick. As soon as his arrival became known a string of callers passed in and out of his rooms. Mr. Hanna maintained that he had not come in the interest of his candidacy for United States senator, but that he was merely the invited guest of the general assembly. He was greatly annoyed by the construction placed upon his visit. Exgovernor Foster, who was expected to be present, failed to put in an appearance, but it was, rumored, that he had given up the idea of becoming a candidate for the stop at the stop at "Have In My Grip." As the annual oratorical contest of the District Epworth League draws near, in-terest is centering in the local chapters as terest is centering in the local chapters as to who will represent them in the final contest for championship of the District. Metropolitian Chapter is on the alert, and Tuesday next the preliminary contest will be held in the lecture room at the church, corner of 4½ and C streets. Unusual rivalry is exhibited, and the five orations to be given at that time will doubtless all be of a high order, and make the duty devolving upon the judges a rather difficult one. The contestants on this occasion are all young upon the judges a rather difficult one. The centestants on this occasion are all young men of marked ability—Mathew C. Hamilton, John W. Greene, H. C. Oberholser, H. C. Sanford and J. D. Herr. The judges are T. H. Andersen, Rev. J. E. Gilbert and Rev. J. H. McCarty. While this is a local contest, it is hoped and expected that a great many from other chapters throughout the city will be present.

Domestie Troubles. Domestic disturbances occupied a considerable portion of the session of Judge Miller's branch of the Police Court today. Mrs. Nora Wall appeared against her husband, Harry M. Wall, and charged him with threats. In the thirteen years of their married life, said Mrs. Wall, her husband had practically done nothing in the way of supporting her. Now, with two small children clinging to her, her husband has threatened, so she claims, to end her earthly career. Mr. Wall denied the accusation, but was placed under bonds to keep the peace.

Another instance of unhappiness was explained by Mrs. Lena Cox and her husband, John H. Cox. On complaint of his better half, Cox, who is a grocer at 1907 12th street, was, a week ago, in court on a warrant for assault, but the case was dismissed. Mrs. Cox stated that she stood in bodily fear of her husband, and was forced to go with her children to Baltimore for protection. She had had him arrested several times before, it was testified. After hearing the statement of the defendant, the case was dismissed by Judge Miller.

Pension Bills Passed. In the House yesterday a pension bill of Washington, $50 a month; bills pensioning Isabelle Morrow, the widow of Col. Morrow, at $75; the widow of Gen. Geo. J. Leet at $25 were passed, and at 5 o'clock Leet at $25 were passed, and at 5 o'clock the House took a recess until 8 p.m.

At the night session Mr. Thomas of Michigan, who is acting chairman of the invalid pension committee in the absence of Chairman Pickler, did not press the usual motion to go into committee of the whole lest the point of no quorum would be made and all further proceedings stopped. Some of the bills favorably acted upon by the committee of the whole last Friday were considered, however, and after considerable difficulty sleven were passed.

FOUND INTOXICATED. Policeman Brown Will Be Tried Next Week.

Policeman Martin Brown's name was put on the list of suspended policemen in the eighth police precinct yesterday, and next Wednesday he will be given a hearing before the trial board on a charge of intoxication. It will not be his first experience of this kind, for he was tried on a similar charge some time ago, when he did duty in Brookland, At that time Sergt, Kenny found him and sent him to the station. He had made a good record for himself, and instead of being dismissed the Commissioners allowed him to pay a fine of $50. But this experience did not teach him the lesson intended, so it is now claimed, for his condition was such this time that when he reached the station Lieut. Gessford relieved him of his badge and weapons, and entered him on the books as suspended. This happened about 1 o'clock, about the time that the officer should have turned in. Several colored people who live in the "Camp," near Freedman's Hospital, had reported the officer's condition to the officers at the station. It was feared by some of them that the officer would draw his revolver and do some damage, and they thought it best that he should be looked after. Sergt. Montgomery and Policeman Lord were sent in the next of the station. instead of being dismissed the Commission-Lord were sent in the patrol wagon to find the alleged intoxicated officer, and when they found him wandering about the streets they wanted him to get in the wamery and Policeman gon and go to the station. This he posi-tively refused to do, and his brother offi-cers allowed him to walk. Charges have been preferred against him, and as already stated, he will probably be tried Wednes-

Gas Found Near Syracuse, N. Y. The Syracuse Gas Company has discov ered natural gas near Syracuse, N. Y., and is preparing to lay conduits to bring the flow there. It will first be supplied to business concerns, and probably later the system will be extended to private concerns. The Onondaga Natural Gas Company has been organized to compete in the sale of the newly discovered product. Wells have been sunk near Baldwinsville, in Onondaga county, with astonishing results, it is claimed. Leases have been secured of large areas of land in the vicinity.
